The sale was headlined by Lot 343, a Collection of Asian Ceramics which sold for $2,337, after intense bidding drove its value well over the estimated $570. Featuring seven bowls with blue, red, and green paintwork, as well as two plates and saucers this lot highlights the quality of fine ceramics available at Michaan's Auctions. The auction also highlighted Asian Porcelain Satsuma Items as Lot 370, which sold for $1,599, and featured intricately painted porcelain from the southern Japanese region.

Lot 568B, an Asian Style Scroll featuring seated, bearded figures sold for $1,476. The sale finished with Lot 1225, an Album of Vintage Photos/Pictures, which featured numerous early photographs and sold for $1,476, while Lot 2046, a Pair of Art Deco Style Swiveling Pedestal Armchairs with elegant, exposed wood frame and a beige upholstery sold for $1,230.
